Privacy Policy

FutureReady360 | Effective November 17, 2026

Effective November 17, 2026. This policy covers FutureReady360 SMS programs, operated by Samuel Rim, rather than all counseling or website activities.

Information we collect

For SMS enrollment, we collect the recipient's name, mobile number, selected message programs, consent date, signature or electronic consent record, and any email address supplied for correspondence. For a student under 18, we also collect a parent or guardian's authorization. We keep the consent wording and policy version shown at enrollment.

When messaging is active, we may keep message content, send dates, delivery reports, replies we receive, and requests for help or withdrawal. Please do not send grades, financial information, medical details, or other sensitive student records in SMS replies.

How we use information

We use this information to verify enrollment, send only the selected programs, provide support, maintain delivery and consent records, and honor withdrawals. We do not treat enrollment in counseling or providing a phone number as automatic enrollment in these SMS programs.

Service providers and sharing

We do not sell or share your SMS opt-in data or personal information with third parties for marketing purposes.

We use service providers, including Twilio for message delivery and providers of hosting, storage, and authorized administrative tools, only as needed to operate the SMS program. Authorized FutureReady360 staff and administrative tools may process enrollment and delivery records for that purpose. We may disclose information when required by law or necessary to protect rights and security.

Retention and access

We limit access to people and services that need the information to operate the program. We retain consent and delivery records as needed to provide the service, document permission, resolve disputes, and meet applicable requirements. We may retain a minimal suppression record after withdrawal to prevent further messages.

Your choices and questions

Reply STOP to unsubscribe from all texts sent by this number, or contact us by email. You may ask to correct your information, change one topic, or request deletion. Some records may need to be retained to document consent or honor your withdrawal.

Questions: samuel.rim@futureready360.net. Updated policies will be available at the published policy address. Any new message topic requires a separate affirmative choice; we will not expand consent retroactively.

Terms and Conditions

FutureReady360 | Effective November 17, 2026

Effective November 17, 2026. These terms apply to voluntary FutureReady360 SMS subscriptions operated by Samuel Rim.

SMS Terms

You may choose Student and family newsletter, with educational and college-planning links about once every two weeks, usually 2–3 messages per month. Separately invited recipients may also choose Still and Growing, with Christian devotional and encouragement links about once per week, usually 4–5 messages per month.

Enrollment, help, and unsubscribe confirmations may be sent in addition to those content messages. Messages may be sent automatically. Enrollment does not authorize unrelated advertising or new topics. Messages are sent individually, and your number is not shared with other recipients through a group text.

Voluntary participation and cost

Consent is optional and is not a condition of buying counseling services. We do not charge a separate SMS subscription fee. Message and data rates may apply under your mobile plan. Contact your carrier about its rates. You must be authorized to use and enroll the mobile number supplied. Our program requires a parent or legal guardian's authorization for recipients under 18.

Stopping messages and getting help

Reply STOP to stop all FutureReady360 texts from 925-558-9995. You may receive one confirmation of your withdrawal. Reply HELP for help, or email samuel.rim@futureready360.net.

To change only one selected topic, email us. If you change or give up your mobile number, notify us so we can stop messages to the old number. A new number requires a new consent record. Rejoining after withdrawal requires a new affirmative enrollment.

Availability and privacy

Message delivery depends on your carrier and may be delayed or unavailable. Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages. This program is not intended for emergencies or time-critical communications.

See the accompanying Privacy Policy on page 2 for information about collection, use, service providers, retention, and your choices. The public policy is available at https://futureready360.net/sms/privacy/.
